

First Semester (Non-CBCS)

1. Name of the Course – Indian Financial System (General)

This paper aims to introduce students to the concept of finance and financial System.

Course Outcome:

At the end of this Course, a student will be able to-

- a) Understand: the basic concepts of financial system of India.
- b) Learn about: the working of financial system in an economy.
- c) Know: the structure, importance, elements, components of financial system of India, about Leasing, hire purchase, merchant banking, etc.

2. Name of the course- Rural and Micro finance (Major)

This paper aims to introduce students to concepts of rural and micro finance.

Course outcome:

At the end of the course, a student will be able to

- a) Understand: the basic concepts of rural and micro finance
- b) Learn about: the structure of rural and micro credit in India
- c) Know: about the various institutions that are providing rural finance in India

Second Semester (Non CBCS)

3. Name of the course- Micro Credit Institutions. (Major)

This paper aims to introduce students the concepts of micro credit and rural credit

Course outcome:

At the end of the course, a student will be able to-

- a) Understand: the concepts of micro and rural credit
- b) Learn about: the working of disbursement of rural credit in India
- c) Know: the system of rural credit

Third Semester (Non CBCS)

4. Name of the course- Corporate Laws (General)

This paper aims to introduce students the concept of company and the rules and laws governing the companies.

Course outcome:

At the end of the course, a student will be able to-

- a) Understand: the concept of company
- b) Learn about: the rules governing the companies in India
- c) Know: the working of the legislations and provisions of the Companies Act, 2013

5. Name of the course- Financial Institutions and Markets (Major)

This paper aims to introduce students about the various financial institutions working in our financial system and the presence of various financial markets in India

Course outcome:

After the end of the course, a student will be able to-

- a. Understand: the concepts of financial institutions and markets
- b. Learn about: the types of institutions and markets
- c. Know: the working mechanism of institutions and markets

Fourth Semester (Non CBCS)

6. Name of the course-Financial Services (General)

This paper aims to introduce the concept of financial service

Course outcome:

After the end of the course, a student will be able to-

- a) Understand: the concept of financial service
- b) Learn about: the various types of financial services
- c) Know: the importance of financial services in our economy

7. Name of the course- International Banking (Major)

This paper aims to introduce the information about the international banking.

Course Outcome:

After the end of the course, a student will be able to:

- a) Understand: the concept of international banking
- b) Learn about: the various international institutions working in the world
- c) Know: about the credit and financial system available

Fifth Semester (Non CBCS)

8. Name of the course-Financial Management (General)

This paper aims to introduce the students the concept of business finance and financial management.

Course Outcome:

After the end of the course, a student will be able to-

- a) Understand: the concept of business finance and financial management
- b) Learn about: the importance and significance of finance
- c) Know: the various decisions regarding financing an enterprise.

9. Name of the course-International Trade (Major)

This paper aims to introduce the concepts of international trade.

Course outcome:

After the end of the course, a student will be able to-

- a) Understand: the concept international trade
- b) Learn about: the various theories of international trade
- c) Know: the importance of international trade.

Sixth Semester (Non CBCS)

10. Name of the course-Modern Banking Practices (General)

This paper aims to introduce the concept of banking and finance.

Course outcome:

After the end of the course, a student will be able to:

- a) Understand: the concept of banking and finance
- b) Learn about: the working mechanism of banks
- c) Know: about the various types of loans and advances available to public and firms.

11. Name of the course-Project Work (Major)

This paper aims to introduce the research methodology to the students.

Course outcome: After the end of the project, a student will be able to-

- a) Understand: how a research is done
- b) Learn about: the process of collecting sample
- c) Know: the outcome of a research.

First Semester (CBCS)

12. Name of the course- Investing in Stock Markets

This paper aims to introduce the students the basic knowledge of stock market operations.

Course Outcome: After the end of the course, a student will be able to:

- a) Understand: the concept of secondary market.
- b) Learn about: the operation of stock markets.
- c) Know: the mechanism of investing in stock market, the various types of market orders, etc.